Lisa Keskinen is a motivating speaker with a passion for enhancing teaching and learning experiences in schools, particularly in Literacy. She has a strong background in effective classroom teaching and has worked as a Literacy Consultant in Australia and the USA. Lisa has presented at conferences and conventions both locally and overseas, speaking on a range of literacy issues and presenting her inspiring work with students on Multigenre Writing Projects. Lisa is currently based in Melbourne, Australia, running her educational consultancy business 'Lisa K Connections'.

Find out how to motivate your students to write with passion as you are guided through an exciting and powerful writing project.

Innovative, inspiring, practical ideas and strategies that work! This seminar looks at:

- * Getting started with Multigenre Writing Projects – effective planning, implementation and evaluation
- * The 8 steps to making Multigenre Writing Projects a great success
- * Students' project proposals – a powerful tool for planning
- * Writing as social practice – how writing changes relationships and understandings of our world
- * How Multigenre Writing Projects connect speaking & listening/reading/writing in meaningful ways
- * Dynamic assessment and evaluation of writing

Gain insight into how you can make a real difference with this powerful approach to the teaching and learning of writing. Come along and be motivated by Lisa's passion for writing!

Please book early to ensure your place. Payment confirms your booking.
